

PATIENT INFORMATION:

Patient: WRAMC VC-371M
Patient ID:
Study Date: 5/8/2003
Referring Physician: HWANG INKU

INTRODUCTION:

A 76 year old male presents with:

Screening

Others: 76 yo WM here for enrollment into Virtual Colonoscopy protocol. Patient states doing well w/o change in BM, wt loss, blood in stool. Patient ave risk for colon cancer w/o FH of colonic polyps, colon ca or polyposis syndromes. Patient w/o positive stool guiac test or h/o iron def anemia w/in past 6 months. Patient has had no prior evaluations for colon cancer screening including normal colonoscopies w/in 10 yrs, and normal ACBE w/in past 5 yrs. Patient w/o h/o adenomatous polyps, colorectal cancer, IBD, HNPCC or FAPS. No h/o rectal bleeding, hematochezia, or unintentional wt loss w/in past 12 months. Patient has no contraindications for colonoscopy in general or to fleets prep.

COLON FINDINGS:

(Supine) Normal finding in the cecum at 185.4 cm from rectum.

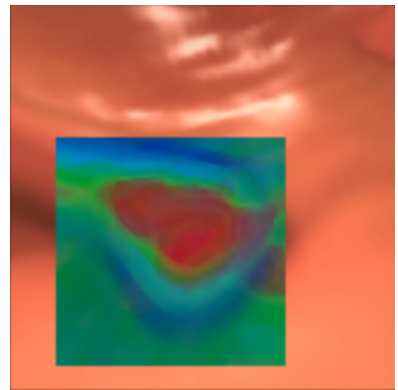

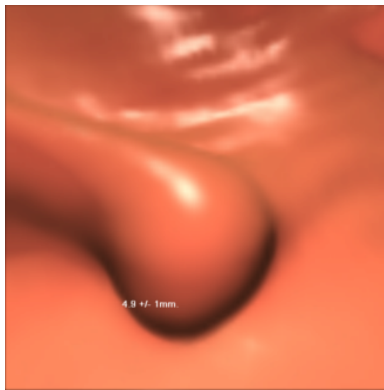

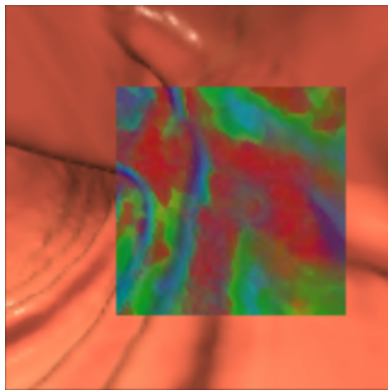

(Supine) 4.9 x 0.0 mm round polyp identified in the ascending colon at 130.1 cm from rectum.

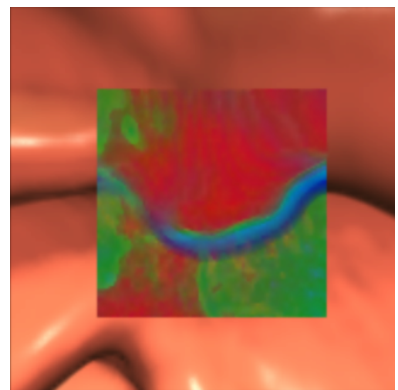

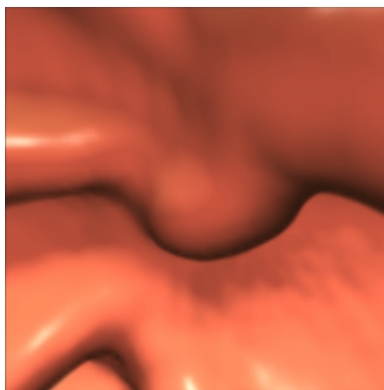

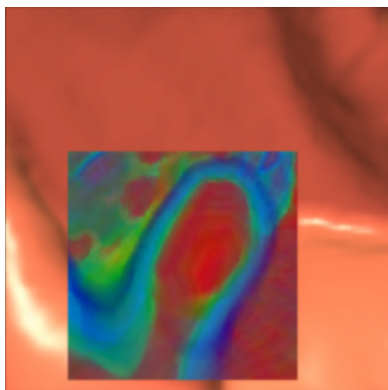

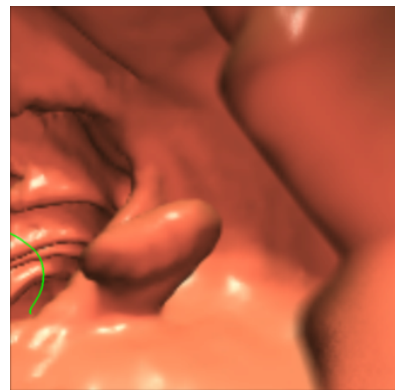

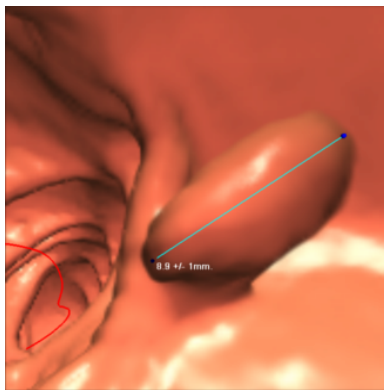

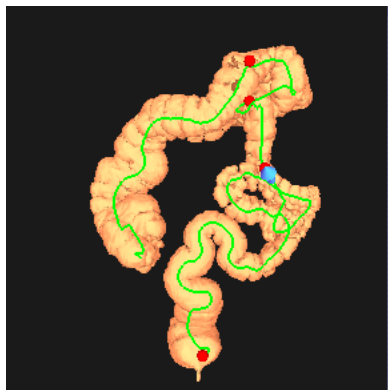

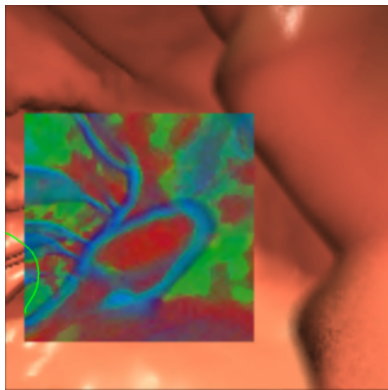

(Supine) 4.8 x 0.0 mm round polyp identified in the transverse colon at 116.8 cm from rectum.

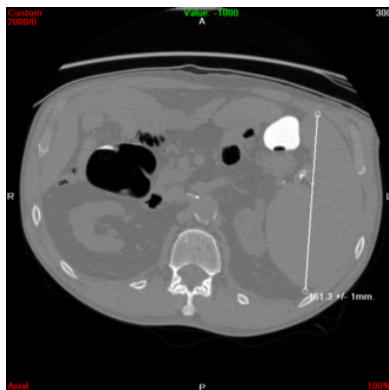

(Prone) 8.9 x 0.0 mm round polyp identified in the transverse colon at 94.8 cm from rectum.

EXTRA-COLONIC FINDINGS:

Extra-Colonic Finding.
Comments: - Splenomegally

Extra-Colonic Finding.
Comments: - Right renal cyst

IMPRESSION

---

- Multiple colonic polyps are noted. There are also splenomegally and right renal cyst noted. Clinical correlation is recommended.

---

J. Richard Choi, ScD, MD